

Greetings AO alums!

Greetings AO alums! 2022-2023 has been a great year for the chapter, and we're very excited to introduce you to our new executive officers. After their election last semester, our eboard has worked tirelessly to continue building the strength of our chapter and bringing brothers together, as well as maintaining our traditions and upholding our values. We hope you are as excited to meet our executive officers as they are to meet you.

Eboard Introductions:

Jake Roelen

President

Year: Sophomore

Major: Computer Science

Hometown: Mission Viejo, CA

As the newly elected Chapter President, Jake Roelen hopes to help the AO5 chapter stride strongly into the future and ensure ZBT is in good standing with the University and our fellow fraternities and sororities. As President, Jake oversees the chapter as a whole making sure things run smoothly and brothers are engaged and satisfied. Jake's goals are to leave his presidency better than he found it and to enhance the qualities which make it great to be a ZBT.

Wyatt Pratt

Operations Director

Year: Sophomore

Major: Pre-Business

Hometown: Thousand Oaks, CA

As the operations director for the AO5 chapter Wyatt Pratt has the responsibility of appointing committee members, keeping in contact with the chapter advisor, collecting and maintaining all necessary paperwork/documentation for the chapter, and even fills in for the president in their absence. Outside of school Wyatt has interned for finance firms and tries to keep up on his trade skills doing freelance carpentry. Wyatt has many goals for his chapter and fraternity, three of them being maintaining a healthy connection between brothers both in the present and the future, creating a healthy environment to foster young men into successful members of society, and leaving the house and fraternity better than he found it.

Fran Virgen

Programming Director

Year: Junior

Major: Finance & Applied Humanities in Fashion Studies

Hometown: Colima, Mexico

As Programming Director, Fran is responsible for the planning and execution of the chapter's events and functions. Fran hopes to incorporate new events and programs as well as continue past traditions to maintain the AO legacy. Fran oversees the Philanthropy Chair, Community Service, Brotherhood Events, Social Chair, Parent's Weekend Chair, as well as the Weekender & Sorority Relations. After College Fran plans to move back to his hometown of Colima, Mexico and open up a casino. His goals as programming director are to strive for greatness and bring the Brummer Cup to Tucson.

Garrett Myers

Communications Director

Year: Junior

Major: Film & TV

Hometown: Saratoga Springs, NY

In his role as Communications Director, Garrett Myers has enjoyed helping the AO5 chapter in many ways. Garrett oversees the house's public relations where he helps on the Art Committee, Family Weekend Committee, and is our Apparel Chairman. Beyond this, he oversees the Alumni Committee and house's social media accounts. Beyond ZBT, Garrett plays volleyball for UofA and does freelance videography. Garrett's goals for ZBT are to help develop virtuous young men in the community, and eventually win chapter of the year.

Jackson Hopper

Brotherhood Development Director

Year: Sophomore

Major: PPEL and Finance

Hometown: Eden Prairie, Minnesota

As Brotherhood Development Director, Jackson Hopper strives to educate the next generation of members on the importance of brotherhood and character building. Jackson also serves on both the academic and sorority relations committees, and has goals of strengthening and maintaining the deep brotherhood of ZBT. Outside of fraternity life, Jackson hopes to work in business law and build a successful career for himself.

Dillon Hennesy

Recruitment Director

Year: Sophomore

Major: Journalism

Hometown: Los Angeles, CA

As Recruitment Director, Dillon Hennesy seeks to maintain a standard of excellence for the new members joining the ZBT brotherhood. He has been heavily involved in rush over the last 3 semesters, helping promote the values of Zeta Beta Tau and in return building up rush classes of intellectual, diverse, and determined individuals. Dillon is also on numerous committees, including but not limited to Sorority Relations, Brotherhood, and Homecoming, while also being the Social Chairman of the house. Outside of the fraternity, Hennesy started his own company hosting and promoting concert events in the greater Arizona area.

Austin Raben

Risk Prevention and Wellness Director

Year: Freshman

Major: Pre Business

Hometown: Scottsdale, AZ

As Risk Prevention and Wellness Director, Austin Raben works diligently with his counterpart Adam to ensure that all ZBT members and guests feel comfortable and safe. Additionally, Austin is one of our Academic Chairmen and helped form a committee to provide academic mentorship. Outside of ZBT, Austin recently received his International Baccalaureate Diploma and is a current student in the Honors College with intentions to switch his major to Computer Sciences this summer. His goals for ZBT are to protect the AO5 chapter and to leave a lasting legacy.

Adam Pearlman

Risk Prevention and Wellness Director

Year: Freshman

Major: Pre-Business

Hometown: San Francisco, CA

As Risk Prevention and Wellness Director, Adam Pearlman is committed to creating a safe and healthy environment for all members. With a focus on promoting responsible behavior and educating members on the importance of physical and mental well-being, he works to mitigate potential risks and encourage positive habits within the chapter. Adam's dedication extends beyond his responsibilities within the fraternity, as he is also interested in pursuing a career in real estate and furthering his academic studies in business.

Jake Baer

Financial Director

Year: Sophomore

Major: Law and Economics

Hometown: Scottsdale, AZ

As Financial Director of ZBT AO5, Jake Baer seeks to maximize the usage of fraternity funds through adamant collecting of dues, restructuring of the budget and working in close coordination with the Social Chairman. Jake previously served on the board of Standards and is also currently the Community Service Chair. Using his Economics and Law degree Jake seeks to practice in the corporate field of law. Jake's goals for ZBT are to build a strong foundation for the chapter so brothers in the years to come will be able to succeed with ease.

Thank you again for being a dedicated member of the AO chapter of Zeta Beta Tau. We are so thankful for your continued support and we cannot wait to connect more in the future.
